1. Introducción

2. Metodología: preparación del conjunto de datos

2.1. Importación de los DataFrames

Una vez cargados todos los datos que se desea estudiar, procederemos a crear el conjunto que los engloba. A continuación exploraremos las variables que conforman este conjunto y determinaremos cuál es la mejor forma para llevar a cabo el análisis.

2.2. Exploración de variables

Empezaremos la exploración con una tabla que resume las características más importantes de todas las variables del conjunto.

Table 1. Resumen de las variables del conjunto de datos.
